SUE WEBSTER RE-ELECTED AS FEW'S NATIONAL PRESIDENT

[Washington, D.C., June 29, 2010]—The membership for Federally Employed Women (FEW) has re-elected Sue Webster to continue leading the organization for the next two years. She and other newly elected FEW officers will be installed at a special ceremony on Friday, July 16, 2010, in conjunction with FEW's National Training Program being held in New Orleans, Louisiana.

For the past two years, Sue Webster has been motivating and leading the organization to new and higher levels along with holding a full time job as an Administration/Technician Specialist for the Navy at the Crane Division's, Naval Surface Warfare Center, Crane, Indiana, an activity of the Naval Sea Systems Command. Since taking office in July 2008, she has focused on FEW's visibility in the federal workplace, the development of future leaders using, the philosophy of, "Each One, Teach One", and strategic planning for FEW to ensure the viability of the organization for the future.

For her next tour of duty, she will continue a focus on FEW's partnerships and visibility, strategic planning to ensure continuous improvement and longevity for the organization for the future, and specifically focus on leadership development at all levels of the organization. Emphasis will be placed on strengthening the chapters and regions through sharing of best practices and resources and understanding the tools that they need to meet the needs of FEW's members and achieve the goals of FEW. Webster stated, "It is truly an honor to have the opportunity to continue to serve at this level for FEW. Every day I come in contact with individuals who are passionate and committed to the mission and goals of this organization. I look forward to a successful term in working with dedicated individuals across government as we continue to ensure that FEW is the Organization of Choice for Leadership, Equity, and the Advancement of Women!"
