"Nevertheless She Persisted"- Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women

How FEW embodies the 2018 Theme

FEW is a private, non-profit organization founded in 1968 shortly after government issued Executive Order 11375 which added sex-discrimination to the list of prohibited discrimination within the Federal Government

Thirteen women and men established "TOO FEW" – the organization of Federally Employed Women; later shortened to "FEW"

FEW has testified before Congress to work for equity for women, barring sex discrimination, Title IX, just to name a few; these efforts are still at the forefront of FEW today. We honor our FEW Presidents who persisted in the fight of all forms of discrimination against women and advancement of women in government.

Meet our honorees, FEW's Presidents, who have persisted for 50 years to fight all forms of discrimination against women and have worked towards women's advancement in the government.

Recognition of FEW's Persistent Leaders

Allie Latimer, the first woman and the first African American to serve as General Counsel of a major United States federal agency, was the organization's first President and remains active today

The FEW History and Our Story links provide synopses of the organization's work throughout its 50 years
